Together We Are Inspiring Life-Long Learners

Superintendent's Corner

We are nearing the end of October. The fall is packed with many activities for both home and school. Trusting you are making time for quality family experiences! Please remember to review the school calendar for upcoming events.

Our first reporting period is coming around the corner. Progress reports will be sent out on November 8th. Our Parent-Teacher conferences will take place at the end of the quarter on December 4th-6th. We will schedule times later after Thanksgiving break.

Here are the upcoming activities for students over the next couple weeks!

This year we will be continuing some activities from previous years. We will once again, be having swimming lessons at the Snohomish Aquatic Center in January and February. We will also be working with Steven's Pass Ski area to provide season's passes for our students attending Index School. In late March, we will have our students (Grades 2-8) attend the Young Authors Writing Conference at Skagit Valley Community College. More information will be coming in upcoming months.

That is all for now,

Brad Jernberg
